ABSTRACT

The moon, which has been taken as a topic to express inside emotions and thoughts by ancient poets, is still a symbol of emotion commitment for people. What she inspires is just like the moon reflecting upon of rivers in the world. The beauty of the female body is traditionally regarded as the essence by the west, and the writer considers the female body to be tender, noble and delicate. The models in the artist 's studio are like the subjectivity of the moon, and meanwhile they are objectivity of the human world. Though the human body of painting works is objective, but it shows the subjective view of the moon. The thesis was to explore much further of the phenomenon realized while seeking for the spirit of essence and the human body painting theories from the east and the west by related literature analysis. The writer tried to use different materials and styles to create art works, and tried to find the materials 'characteristics and the tension of the skill performance to express the inside meaning of the female body art works, hopefully, to share the inside feelings with the readers, to make the beauty of the human body more sublime. Therefore, the main purpose of the thesis is as follows. The first, from the aspect of the content, was to show the characteristics of the models by the painting works on the topic of female body. The second, from the aspect of forms, was to probe into the art expression forms of female body. The last, from the aspect of skills, was to make a breakthrough on forms and materials by probing into the diversity of materials for oil paintings and water paintings , and to except the creation of the writer to be better.
